

Auto Diallers

EDAC 700

The 400 Auto Dialler features twenty(20) configurable inputs and the capacity to dial out and send voice messages (300 seconds of voice time) via a normal telephone line. The unit is complete with inbuilt battery backup and monitors the power to the unit sending a voice message in the event of a power failure.

Features

- Digital & analog inputs can generate an alarm report status
- Up to 20 physical analog inputs scaled to engineering units
- 300 seconds of voice messaging time
- Voice messages and parameters held in non-volatile memory (flash)
- 20 digital phone numbers, including PABX pauses
- Full PIN security
- Program made via remote modem
- NZ and Australian Approved
- Voice recorded via on board microphone
- On board monitor speaker
- Remote access via phone modem for programmable dialer configuration & parameters
- Dial in interrogation, using voice messages and touch tone phone
- Back up battery – Internal
- Independent internal 14K4 modem used for remote configuration
- Report I/O status
- Roster change
- Output control mode
- Field upgradable of OS via RS323
- Master call list to make call lists from
- Selectable rosters of call lists for different Groups or Zones
- RS232 program via windows hypaterminal

Physical Size

345mm x 303mm x 120mm